These subjects were introduced with the aim of exciting students on the possibilities of immersive technologies while educating them to become responsible digital citizens. The subjects cover important aspects for students like digital etiquette, cybersecurity, cyberbullying, information literacy, using the internet for social good, and the future of our digital world with topics such as AI, AR/VR, and the Metaverse with experiential and activity-based learning at the core of the pedagogy.

This pledge is a reminder that the responsibility of making the digital world a space that is safe for all, lies with each and every one of us. Schools are encouraged to share the pledge with the students as well. More details about how schools can integrate this and report out activities will be shared during the orientation.
